Adult Foster Home Classes of Care

The following describes the classes of Adult Foster Care Homes.

- Class I A Provider with a Class I license may only admit residents who need assistance in up to four Activities of Daily Living (ADLs).
- Class II A Provider with a Class II license may provide care for residents who require assistance in all Activities of Daily Living, but are not dependent in more than three Activities of Daily Living. A Class II provider may request an exception to provide care to a Level III resident. Routine nursing tasks may be delegated to the provider and qualified staff under the Board of Nursing rules.
- Class III A Provider with a Class III license may provide care for residents who are dependent in four or more Activities of Daily Living, except that no more than one “bed-care” or totally dependent person may be in residence at any time. Complex tasks will be performed by a registered nurse or may be delegated under the Board of Nursing Rules.

Activities of Daily Living (ADL) means those personal functional activities required by an individual for health and safety. ADLs consist of eating, dressing and grooming, bathing and personal hygiene, mobility (ambulation and transfer), elimination (toileting, bowel, and bladder management), and cognition and behavior management.
